ANNOUNCEMENT OF ANNUAL MEETING AT MONTREAL,
JUNE 25-30, 1934

The A. L. A. Bulletin announces in its February number that delegates can plan ahead for the conference on the basis of a rail fare of one and one-third for all points within the United States and Canada for the round trip.

This Association and the National Association of State Libraries will have their headquarters and hold their meetings at the Mount Royal Hotel. The rates at this hotel are the same as at the Windsor Hotel, chosen by the American Library Association for the general headquarters, namely, $4.00 a day for a single room with bath; double room with bath, $7.00 a day. Reservations should be made directly with the hotel.

The Mount Royal Hotel is two blocks from the Windsor, and by the same distance nearer McGill University.

The Program is in active preparation and will be announced shortly.

Those interested in a post-conference trip by steamer to Quebec, down the St. Lawrence and up the Saguenay River, with stops along the way at famous places, should communicate for details with Frederick W. Faxon, 83 Francis Street, Boston. Mr. Faxon is also arranging a seven and one-half week trip abroad, provided twenty-five will book.

WASHINGTON STATE BAR PROCEEDINGS

January 19, 1934.

Mr. Eldon R. James, Librarian,
Harvard Law School,
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Mr. James:

Replying to your letter of January 8, there have been no proceedings as yet of the new Integrated Bar of the State of Washington. They probably will issue their own journal which will include their proceedings. I will give the story of the bar association reports for the past few years.

1927—Last printed report.

1928—In manuscript, never printed.

1929, 1930, 1931—Published in the Washington Law Review.

1932—Not published in the Washington Law Review due to some economy program.

1933—Two addresses only printed in the Washington Law Review.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) ARTHUR S. BEARDSLEY,
Law Librarian.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES

(As Amended to October 20, 1933.)

CONSTITUTION

Section 1. The name of this Association shall be American Association of Law Libraries.

Section 2. The object shall be to develop and increase the usefulness and efficiency of law libraries.

Section 3. There shall be four classes of membership—regular, associate, life and honorary.

Section 4. Any person officially connected with a law library, state library, or with a general or special library having a separately maintained law section, may become a regular member upon payment of the annual dues.

Section 5. Persons not connected with law libraries may be elected to associate membership at the discretion of the executive committee.

Section 6. The Association may at any regular meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of those present, elect honorary members who shall be exempt from dues.

Section 6a. The Association may, at any regular meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of those present, elect to life-membership those who have been members of the Association, but who have retired from active library work. Such members shall be exempt from dues.

Section 7. The right of holding office and voting shall be restricted to regular and life members.

Section 8. In all matters of business each regular member shall be entitled to one vote.

Section 9. The officers shall consist of a president, a vice-president, a second vice-president, a secretary and a treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting, and serve until their successors are appointed. All the officers may serve at the will of the Association except the President who shall not be eligible for reelection for any consecutive term.

Section 10. There shall be an Executive Committee of nine consisting of three members who shall be elected at the annual meeting and serve until their successors are appointed, the last retired President, and the officers mentioned in Section 9. The Committee may act officially by correspondence addressed to the secretary.

Section 11. Vacancies through non-acceptance, resignation or death shall be filled by the executive committee.

Section 12. The duties of these several officers shall be those ordinarily assigned to said officers in similar associations. Expenditures not authorized by the Association may be made only with the approval of the executive committee.

Section 13. An annual meeting of the Association shall be held at the same time and place as the annual meeting of the American Library Association, unless there are special reasons for holding it elsewhere; and in that event the call for the meeting shall be issued in the same manner as provided in Section 14 for special meetings.

Section 14. Special meetings may be held at such times and places as the Executive Committee may elect or the Association direct.

Section 15. Any by-law may be repealed, amended or suspended by a three-fourths vote of those present and voting at any meeting of the Association.

Section 16. This constitution may be amended in the manner herein provided. Notice of any amendment shall be filed with the secretary at least sixty days before a regular meeting of the Association, and notice therefore shall be sent by the secretary to the members of the Association at least thirty days prior to said meeting. Such amendments shall be submitted at an annual meeting of the Association, and any member not present thereat may file his vote thereon with the secretary and the same shall be counted as though he were present and voting. If three-quarters of the votes of the members present and voting at such meeting, and of the votes filed as above provided, be in favor of such amendment, it shall stand adopted.

BY-LAWS

Section 1. The annual dues of regular and associate members, except library assistants, shall be $3.00, and each member shall receive the report of the proceedings of the annual convention as a part of said membership. The year for dues shall begin on July 1st in each and every year. In billing annual dues to regular and associate members, except library assistants, the Treasurer shall, however, send a bill making it optional with the member whether he shall pay $3.00 or $5.00 for the year. The dues of library assistants shall be $2.00 per year.

Section 2. Members failing to pay dues for two successive years shall be dropped from membership.

Indispensable to Bench and Bar

From its subscribers among members of the bench and bar throughout the country comes unsolicited testimony of the unique value of the UNITED STATES LAW REVIEW.

A Practical Working Tool

The REVIEW has come to me for some months and I have found it particularly interesting and valuable. In the March issue, a very exhaustive and beautifully-arranged disquisition of the law and decisions of the courts touching common law marriages and the method of proving same etc., was to me of such great interest and importance that I copied the same bodily into a brief which I will have to use in a case within the next month.—William T. Tredway, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The LAW REVIEW has established for itself a secure place in our office library and every issue is read with interest and conveniently filed for future use.—Robert L. Judd, Salt Lake City, Utah.

I have found the UNITED STATES LAW REVIEW interesting and informative to a high degree and examine each new number with the expectation that I shall find something useful. So far, I have not been disappointed.—Clyde L. Young, Bismarck, N. D.

Your Digests of Current Cases are models of clarity and terseness. It would be a blessing if the judges of our Appellate Courts were to use them as patterns for their opinions.—Llewellyn L. Callaway, Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Montana.

A Well-Balanced Magazine

I think your editorial staff has so far maintained a nice balance between articles strictly utilitarian in character and those which make more interesting reading.—L. D. Underwood, Washington, D. C.

The UNITED STATES LAW REVIEW is well balanced, both as to the variety of subjects and general nature of the articles as well as the space devoted to each.—Walter R. Arnold, South Bend, Ind.

In substance and style your magazine is in a class all of its own.—Kiskind & Reilley, New York City.
